Dynamic Duo

Adrian Dolan and Marc Atkinson

Colwood's Church of the Advent is excited to present two of Vancouver Island's most sought after musicians in a rare duo performance at this month's jazz vespers. Adrian Dolan with

Marc Atkinson will close off the sixth season of Church of the Advent's Jazz Vespers series. With musical influences that range from jazz to classical to folk and roots.

These superb musicians promise a unique and unforgettable Jazz Vespers experience.

After more than a decade of touring and recording together in the 5-piece powerhouse JUNO-nominated group The Bills, Adrian Dolan (violin, viola, accordion) and Marc Atkinson (guitar, mandolin) are bringing together their diverse musical backgrounds as an instrumental duo for the first time in 2011.

"Adrian Dolan is unquestionably one of Canada's very finest fiddlers"

(Steve Edge, Rogue Folk Club, Vancouver)

"Marc Atkinson is a daring and inventive acoustic guitarist and a powerful force in the new roots/jazz movement".

(Greg Quill, The Toronto Star)

Their adventures in The Bills took Adrian and Marc to all corners of the globe, bringing an infectious blend of rootsy rhythms and melodies, inspired by folk traditions and presented with a virtuosity and passion for improvising.

May 15th @ 7 p.m. at Colwood's Church of the Advent will be a Jazz Vespers not to be missed. Come and close out season six in style with this all star duo!
