

CHRISTIANS AND ISRAEL: LIFE “IN THE MIDDLE “ IN TODAY’S MIDDLE EAST

The Rev. Dr. Kamal Farah,
St. George’s College, Jerusalem
Friday, April 15th 6:00 p.m.
Church of the Advent in Colwood

FATHER KAMAL WILL SHARE HIS EXPERIENCE LIVING AND WORKING IN AND AROUND JERUSALEM. IN THIS TIME OF EPOCHAL POLITICAL CHANGE IN THE MIDDLE EAST HE WILL BRING THE PERSPECTIVES OF AN INSIDER AND LONGTIME RESIDENT.

The Rev. Dr. Kamal Farah is a retired Anglican priest in the Episcopal Diocese of Jerusalem. His special expertise includes Biblical and cultural contexts of the Middle East; monotheistic religions and ecumenical dialogue; human rights and Middle-East minorities; and 5 languages: Arabic, Aramaic, Hebrew, French, and English. Dr. Farah is a popular communicator and story-teller.

A pot luck supper will commence at 6 p.m. followed by slides and address at 7:15 p.m. Your contributions are welcome. If requested in advance, child minding can be provided.

Church of the Advent | 510 Mt. View Ave.
www.colwoodanglican.ca | rector@colwoodanglican.ca | 250 474 3031