

Images of Canada
Images du Canada

Chosen from 100 Photos That Changed Canada

Mark Reid, Editor

A truly National consensus

76

Terry Fox during his Marathon of Hope, July 13, 1980.

My life with Pierre Berton

Donald Smith drives "The Last Spike" at Châteaufort, B.C., November 7, 1915.

Suzuki and Kogowa at New Denver and Silverton

Japanese Canadians, who were allowed to take only whatever possessions they could carry, await deportation to Japan, Slocan City, B.C., 1946.

43

As goes Oil so goes our Economy –
Canada as a
Petro State

44

A column of smoke and flame erupts from Imperial Oil's Leduc #1, February 13, 1947.

Oscar –
One word says it all

Oscar Peterson with his father, Daniel, playing piano together, September 1945.

42

Bob and Doug – Hey, I was there

Confrontation at Oka, September 1, 1990.

Henry Morgenthaes, March 29, 1975.

Choice – but whose choice?

Right next door

90

Protesters blockade a road during the Clayoquot Sound protests in the summer of 1993.

95

Women's Hockey

Canada's women's hockey team wins Olympic gold, 2002.

Images of Canada

More than rocks and trees,
Streams and the seashore
Bacon and buckskin

Some things to think about

- Whether born here, or an immigrant, we are people of privilege, with a responsibility for stewardship
- Canada's faith mosaic is both a blessing and a challenge
- The vocation of Canadian Christians is ethically based; what we DO matters; also HOW we do it

God keep our land
glorious and free

It's not just God in the driver's seat

Lets pray together