DIOCESAN CONFERENCE (SEPT 27-28, 2019) – “We Together” is our diocese’s biennial conference that gathers together everyone from our islands and inlets who wish to unite, pray, learn and share “what God is up to in our lives.” This year’s conference is at St. Paul in Nanaimo and will focus on “our role in building the peaceable kingdom imagined and longed for in scripture.” The event kicks off on Friday evening with a keynote address by Pádraig Ó Tuama who is a poet, theologian and conflict mediator from Ireland. Saturday offers a full day’s program of workshops following morning coffee/registration and the Bishop’s greeting. For more information about the conference and to register, please visit <https://bc.anglican.ca/events/we-together-conference/2019-09-27>.

BOOK SALE – We need your help! In previous years, we relied on Discover Books to pick up the surplus of books left over from our Annual Book Sale. However, this organization is no longer operating in Canada (only the U.S.) and can do a pickup on the condition that we have a semi-trailer full.

As an alternate plan, we will arrange for other organizations to arrive after the sale at 3 p.m. to pick up the books they can use, but we will also need volunteers to pick up however many boxes they can and deliver them to charities and thrift stores.

As well, we are considering transporting a load or more up to Nanaimo for their books sale which follows shortly after ours and would need volunteer help for this process too.

Finally, if you have any contacts at the Rotary that we could reach out to, kindly please let Jose or the office know.

Your assistance is much appreciated. Thank you!
